

Since I have subscribed to XM radio I rarely ever listen to regular broadcast radio. The availability of local weather and traffic on XM is a great service. On regular broadcast weather is not available all the time and traffic is only available during drive time. On XM this service is available all the time.